

Kirsten Allen

Violin & Viola Instructor

Piano, Guitar & Clarinet

We would like to welcome back to our teaching staff, Kirsten Allen!

Kirsten taught with us at Music Quarters in early 2017 for several months and is returning back to teach at our Colony and Promenade Locations.

Kirsten has been playing violin since she was four years old training in the Suzuki method at Meredith College. At the age of 12 she studied under Violet Pan and later studied music at the College of Charleston.

She began teaching in Mexico City at 22 and has continued to teach in the United States since then. Along with violin Kirsten also teaches piano, clarinet, and guitar. She uses a variety of methods including Suzuki and Faber alongside other techniques. She enjoys all kinds of music and embraces every style.

There is nothing Kirsten loves more than watching her students grow and learn their chosen instrument. She is thrilled to be back teaching at Music Quarters.

Kirsten will be teaching on Monday's at our Promenade location and Thursday's at our Colony location starting February 1, 2018. She will be adding another day at our Promenade location in early spring.

If you would like to go ahead and secure a lesson spot with Kirsten just call the location of your choice.
